

20th WesterFlora Garden Tour - July 17, 2011 - 1 PM to 7 PM

Musicians Backgrounds

Christopher Gatsby, the Westerville Troubadour, sings and plays the guitar combining elements of blues, rock, folk and country in an acoustic style completely his own.

"Just for Fun" is a four part close harmony a cappella barbershop quartet who has been together for five years and are members of the Singing Buckeyes.

The Columbus Chorus of Sweet Adelines is celebrating 52 years of harmony. They recently took second place in the Barbershop 2011 Region 4 Chorus Competition. In addition to the chorus of 35 who will be performing for WesterFlora there will also be three quartets performing individually: "For Harmony's Sake", "Sounds Good to Me" and "Tangle".

Geneve Blackwell, who has been playing the piano since age 3, sings and plays contemporary and classical music on the keyboard.

Nyla Stats has been playing the 12-string guitar for about 30 years and specializes in easy listening music.

"High Five Brass" is a brass quintet of five Westerville Central High School musicians who play in the marching band as well as a variety of other musical ensembles.

Dan Epley, retired Westerville middle school teacher, is a solo singer/guitarist who performs folk, country and western, pop and traditional music and can yodel as well.
